NEWSLETTER Friday 19th March 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

Well, time is flying! It's been a busy couple of weeks~ but we've had a lot of fun since we've been back! Read on to see what's been happening at school.

Class 2 really enjoyed their second session of handball with Mr Tanner on Thursday. It was a perfect sunny day to practice our shooting and defending. A few of us even tried to get it past Mr Tanner when he was in goal!

As part of our PSHE for this term, Class 4 explored emergency aid and after watching a demonstration video, spent some time practicing the recovery position with their partners.

We braved the weather in our Outdoor Explorers session last week to help a Dino with a problem! He had written the children a letter asking them to help him find his lost eggs. He then requested they make a giant nest to keep the eggs warm & safe. The children worked so well together to create a fantastic nest. We also enjoyed looking at the daffodils we had planted in the Autumn & talked about other signs of Spring we could spot!

Class 3 had another fun wild woodland learning session this week. Swinging, climbing, seesawing, and perfecting the fine art of daisy making.

The children also worked well in teams to complete the caterpillar challenge.

Remarkably no one fell over!

WELLBEING: Books to support wellbeing

In preparation for Class One returning to school I purchased some books to support children with working through their emotions & dealing with any worries and anxieties they might be experiencing. We shared these last week and this led to some interesting & meaningful discussions. Story books, even for older children, can be a powerful way of exploring a whole range of issues. These include feelings & emotions, compassion & empathy, differences & similarities, identity, confidence & self-esteem. I have a brilliant list of books that is too long to list here, but if you would like a recommendation of a book to deal with a particular issue/theme I can provide some suggestions!

These are two that I shared with Class One last week & can highly recommend (for children aged 4-7 years)

FaB & COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

Over the past two weeks the children have enjoyed seeing some familiar faces in their class Collective Worship. Helen Sands, from Open the Book, and Rev. Tom & Rev. Laura have kindly all made recordings for us. Watching these is a wonderful way of staying connected with our church community. We've had the opportunity to explore and reflect on International Women's Day and one of our core Christian Values – trust.

All classes are currently learning about Salvation in their FaB lessons, developing a deeper understanding of why Easter is considered the most important Christian festival.

COMING UP

Thursday 1st April: end of term 2pm finish

That's all the news for now. Have a good weekend

Jill Ryder.
